

Understanding Equus

2008 Freelance Services:

Maximise you and your horses' potential, looking at equine behaviour, psychology and 'Equus', the language of the horse. A highly skilled communicator, Debbie uses her knowledge and experience in natural horsemanship techniques, to develop an individualised program to suit you and your horse's needs, vital to achieving lasting and effective results.

● Private Consultation: A 2-3hr. home visit from Debbie, ideal for loading / travelling problems, handling and ground training issues, as well as improving ridden communication and working through ridden problems. (Most loading, handling and ground training issues can be dealt with during one session, ridden and travelling problems usually require a repeat visit, please call to discuss details.)

£150 + Travel (Discounts available for group bookings and multiple visits, please enquire for details.)

● Tailor Made Workshops: A fun, interactive and informal learning day or days, covering all aspects of equine behaviour, psychology and communication. Arranged on a bespoke basis and can include a Talk, Demonstration, Q&A Session & Individual Consultations, depending on numbers and facilities.

£375 per day + Travel (Max. 4 horses, 20 Spectators.)

Covering all aspects of behaviour, communication and natural horsemanship training techniques, the private consultations and workshops are designed with you and your horses needs in mind. Through expert guidance, training and on-going support, Debbie will help you to maximize you and your horses' potential and to develop a true partnership through understanding.
