

Understanding Equus

28/11/2011

Wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a warm welcome

Following my return to work I have enjoyed another wonderful summer in the South and Suffolk areas. Including my usual freelance services with individual clients, teaching students at The Open College of Equine Studies in Suffolk, running workshops & supporting the launch of The New Horse in Dorset, I again would like to thank all those who have helped and supported me throughout the year, enabling the 'Understanding Equus' approach to continue to develop and reach more people than ever.

As the days become shorter & the preparations for Christmas get into full swing I have also been looking at different ways to help people & their equine partnerships in these difficult times of financial uncertainty. To reflect this I have come up with a series of open training days & Winter Offers to lighten the load & brighten up the winter months...

Initial Private Consultation:

A 3hr home visit, getting to know you and your horse. Ideal for laying the foundations so that the future is easy and assessing & implementing solutions to most common training issues, including loading & travelling, handling & ground training, as well as improving ridden communication.

£175 + Travel @ 50ppm Now only: £150 + Travel. If booked by 20th Dec 2011

Xmas Gift Vouchers: Available from only £25!

This would cover a half day session at a 'Meeting of Minds' Open Training Day with myself & Carolyn @ The New Horse (See Below.) Gift Vouchers are also available from £45 to go towards a private consultation or coaching session, or £50 for a personal development 'Equine Facilitated Learning' taster session @ TNH with myself. (Some travel costs may apply, please call for details.)

New 2012! 'Meeting of Minds' Open Training Days: 10am – 3pm: Jan 9th, Feb 6th, March 5th, April 2nd 2012 @ The New Horse, Motcombe, Dorset.

This is a unique opportunity for you to participate with your horse, or observe, and gain insights from two acclaimed horsemanship trainers. Carolyn Bouchier & myself will be coming together to share knowledge & look at different horsemanship techniques & philosophies, working with horses of all ages & stages of training.

Meet like-minded people & learn through demonstration & discussion to find what works for YOU & your horse. 'Early Bird' offer rates from: £45 for 1 day, to £150 for all 4 days. Bookings by Dec 20th

Please keep an eye on the website for further details, dates and information coming in the New Year: <http://www.understandingequus.co.uk/News.htm> Alternatively, call me now for an informal chat on any of my services & the best ways I can move you and your horse forward to achieve your maximum potential.

With Regards & Best Wishes for happy, healthy & successful partnerships in 2012!
